

A program for family, friends and carers in the ACT

Are you supporting someone experiencing suicidal distress or following a suicide attempt? If so, the Minds Together program can help.

Minds Together is a free program available both online and face-to-face. The program is designed to enhance the skills and knowledge of family, friends and carers in the ACT.

What you'll gain:

- New strategies for supporting someone
- Ways to look after your own mental health and wellbeing while caring for others
- Access to videos, expert podcasts and interactive activities
- Connection with others who provide support and care.

A program for family, friends and carers in the ACT

Are you supporting someone experiencing suicidal distress or following a suicide attempt? If so, the Minds Together program can help.

Minds Together is a free program available both online and face-to-face. The program is designed to enhance the skills and knowledge of family, friends and carers in the ACT.

What you'll gain:

- New strategies for supporting someone
- Ways to look after your own mental health and wellbeing while caring for others
- Access to videos, expert podcasts and interactive activities
- Connection with others who provide support and care.

Access Minds Together

[mindstogether.org.au/
supporting-someone-in-the-act](https://mindstogether.org.au/supporting-someone-in-the-act)

An  EVERYMIND program

