

A program for family, friends and carers in Perth, WA

Are you supporting someone experiencing suicidal distress or following a suicide attempt? If so, the Minds Together program can help.

Minds Together is a free program offered both online and face-to-face. Designed to enhance the skills and knowledge of family, friends and carers, the program is available through Neami National aftercare services in Perth, WA.

What you'll gain:

- New strategies for supporting someone
- Ways to look after your own mental health and wellbeing while caring for others
- Access to videos, expert podcasts and interactive activities
- Connection with others who provide support and care.
